By W. A. DE GRAVES, Bulletin Staff Correspondent

my W. A. DE UKAVES, Builetin BIAIT COPRESPONDER: WINNIPED, Man. Oct 12:—Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, former prime minister of Canada and leader of the Conservative party, appearing in the convention as one of the rank and file, Monday afternoon threw a monkey wrench into the machinery of the hig Conservative convention now in session here, and the present day leaders are still wondering how much damage has been done.

present day leaders are still wondering how much damage has been done.

The Meighen attack was not entirely unexpected, but its recult was, to begin with, word had passed around that the former prime minister was going to appear and make a defence of his now famous speech on Canada a part in the further participation of war. I was known that oppear of the appear of the participation of war, I was known that oppear of the second was proposed in the participation of war. I was known that oppear of the further participation of war. I was known that oppear of war in the word had been passed back that Mr. Meighen carried out his proposed program, Hon. Howard Mr. Meighen carried out his proposed program, Hon. Howard Geguson, Premier of Ontario, and the man who was credited with having the leadership in his pocket if he cared to make smove to get it, would follow him and absolutely disassociate minself from the utterances of his former leader.

The Woman who Didn't Belong

The soul stirring story of a woman who ignored the command: "Judge not according to the appearance."

MARJORIE Harrison judged her newly arrived neighbour by appearance—the blatant voice, the paint and powder, the exargerated style of dress, the over-friendly attitude. And so it was unanimously decided that Mrs. Clara Compton did not "belong" to the social set of which Marjorie was the leader.

They would not take her up

When Clara realized that her Pharisee neighbors were in league to snub her, she quietly ignored them. But, one day she kicked over the traces and gave them a luscious morsel for the tea-hour gossip. As Clara's sedate husband would leave the house, a handsome young "Sheik," in a snappy sports model, would dash up to her door, "honk konk"—and away they would spin, chatting and laughing merrily!

sort!"

But ... one night, when a treacherous storm broke, the sell-righteous Marjorie Harrison found herself alone with her only child dying of convolutions. The telephone and electric wires were cut from the fury of the gale. "Help — HELP — HELP!" But there was no help! Staggering out not the lawn, who screamed ... And from out of the storm came — the woman who didn't belong!

Did Marjorie Harrison, out of sheer gratitude, welcome this good, had woman into her social set—this woman who saved the life of her child woman into the two tiersenses of both women to do so? Is it possible for East and West to meet socially under such circumstances?

"Judge not, that ye be not judged"

but you must read this thought-proroking, soul-stirring story from life, en-led: "CONDEMNED BY WOMEN" in TRUE STORY MAGAZINE for covember-now on the newstands. It has a very powerful appeal, tugging ike at the heart-strings and the conscience.

WOMEN'S SPATTEES, $1.50

Don't you just hate to go out in wet or snowy weather and have mud splashes and spots up the backs of your nice clean silk stockings! It is too soon yet to don the heavier hose, but slightly too cool for silk—and these new spates, just from England, simplify the problem. They are just as neat as spats—but less blem. They are just as neat as spats—but less them. They are just as neat as spats—but less them. They are just as neat as spats—but less them.
